

1977

BORN IN CARIBOU, ME

Her mother was a nurse who immigrated from Sweden
Her father was a physician who grew up in Israel
Growing up, she went to synagogue and had a bat mitzvah

1999

GRADUATED FROM BROWN UNIVERSITY
Meir received a Bachelor of Arts in Biology

2000

GRADUATED FROM INTERNATIONAL SPACE UNIVERSITY
Meir received a Master of Science in Space Studies

2009

GRADUATED FROM SCRIPPS INSTITUTION OF OCEANOGRAPHY
Meir received a Ph.D. in Marine Biology
Her thesis was Blood oxygen transport and depletion: The key of consummate divers

2013

STARTED WORKING WITH NASA
Meir was selected as a member of the 21st Astronaut Class

2019-2020

ASTRONAUT IN ACTION
Meir served as Flight Engineer on Expeditions 61 and 62
She completed the first all-women spacewalks with Christina Koch

JESSICA MEIR

ASTRONAUT

"When you look down from above, seeing Earth in all of its entirety and how interconnected it is, it is so easy to see that we're truly one. We're one human. We're all in this together. I do hope that there are many other things that we can do on the ground as scientists, collaborating internationally."